EXPLANATION AND ORDER

On March 10, 2022, Lead Counsel for the Riddell Plaintiffs filed an Unopposed Motion for Entry of Order to Show Cause. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 11658; Case No. 19-md-2323, ECF No. 21.) Lead Counsel included an Exhibit 1, listing individual Plaintiffs who had originally filed claims against one or more of the Riddell Defendants<sup>1</sup> and who subsequently filed a Short Form Complaint in compliance with the Court's October 24, 2017 Order ("SFC Order"). On March 11, 2022, the Court issued an Order directing any Plaintiff not listed on Exhibit 1 and who believed they should be so listed to file a response on or before April 1, 2022. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 11659; Case No. 19-md-2323, ECF No. 22.)

I. DISCUSSION

The Court received responses to its March 11, 2022 Order from Pro Se Plaintiff Brandon Winey ("Winey"), Pro Se Plaintiff Nathaniel (Nate) Lewis ("Lewis"), and X1LAW. I will consider each in turn.

a. Brandon Winey

Mr. Winey asks to be added to Exhibit 1 notwithstanding the failure of his operative Short Form Complaint (“SFC”) to name Riddell entities as defendants. (Case No. 19-md-2323; ECF No. 23.) During the early years of this Settlement, Mr. Winey “found [himself] in the middle of an unfortunate game of tug of war” between two firms, as both Zimmerman Reed and Derriel McCorvey (“McCorvey”) claimed Mr. Winey as a client and named him as plaintiff in their respective suits—Zimmerman Reed’s suit against the NFL parties alone, and McCorvey’s suit against both the NFL parties and various Riddell entities. (Case No. 19-md-2323; ECF No. 31 at 1-2.)

I credit Mr. Winey’s recitation of the facts as an accurate representation of both his memory of what occurred and his intention to engage in litigation against the Riddell Defendants. Mr. Winey engaged McCorvey as his attorney based on a prior relationship; he cannot recall ever engaging Zimmerman Reed. On July 9, 2012, pursuant to the Court’s second Case Management Order, McCorvey filed an SFC on Mr. Winey’s behalf that identified Riddell as a defendant. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 189.) Four days later, Zimmerman Reed also filed an SFC on Mr. Winey’s behalf, naming only the NFL Parties as defendants. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 2298.) On July 15, 2014—two years later—McCorvey withdrew the SFC that identified Riddell. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 6098.). The withdrawal notice stated that the SFC was withdrawn due to “error,” but it was ostensibly the result of needing to eliminate the duplicative SFCs. Mr. Winey states that he did not consent to the 2014 withdrawal.

The Riddell Defendants argue that, because McCorvey withdrew Mr. Winey’s SFC against Riddell in 2014, Mr. Winey lacked a valid claim against Riddell at the time of the Court’s 2017

SFC Order. Without a valid claim against Riddell, they argue, Mr. Winey was ineligible to file an SFC in 2017 and remains ineligible to do so today.

The Riddell Defendants are correct. When a Court orders use of a master complaint in multi-district litigation, it becomes the superseding pleading in the MDL action. Gelboim v. Bank of Am. Corp., 574 U.S. 405, 413 n.3 (2015). In its second Case Management Order of April 26, 2012, the Court required all plaintiffs to file SFCs to accompany the Master Complaint. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 64). Two SFCs were filed on Mr. Winey's behalf, but only one—the SFC filed by Zimmerman Reed which names only the NFL Parties as defendants—remains operative. As such, Mr. Winey has no valid ongoing claim against the Riddell Defendants and cannot be added to Exhibit 1.

b. Nathaniel (Nate) Lewis

Mr. Lewis asks to be added to Exhibit 1 notwithstanding his counsel's failure to comply with the Court's SFC Order. (Case No. 19-md-2323; ECF No. 24.) Mr. Lewis was named as plaintiff in a lawsuit entitled Austin, et al. v. National Football League et al., filed in the Southern District of Mississippi and subsequently transferred to this Court as Case No. 12-cv-4381. Mr. Lewis asserts that this case included claims against Riddell, but examination of both dockets, the original complaint, and Mr. Lewis' subsequent short-form complaint reveals that is not the case. (S.D. Miss. Case No. 12-cv-461, ECF No. 1; E.D. Pa. Case No. 12-cv-4381, ECF No. 19.) Having never asserted a claim against the Riddell Defendants, Mr. Lewis cannot do so now.

c. X1LAW

Finally, X1LAW asks for a list of 67 players—identified only by their NFL Concussion Settlement ID numbers—to be added to Exhibit 1. (Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 11676.) Both Lead Counsel and the Riddell Defendants have done a capable job of researching the identities of these 67 players and determining their prior involvement, if any, in the MDL:

- 55 were never named as plaintiffs in an MDL lawsuit;
- five (5) were named as plaintiffs in suits against the NFL Parties only;
- one (1) was named in two suits, only one of which named Riddell entities as defendants, but this player's sole operative SFC—as with Mr. Winey above—does not name Riddell; and
- six (6) previously asserted claims against the Riddell Defendants but did not comply with the Court's 2017 SFC Order.

(Case No. 19-md-2323; ECF Nos. 28, 29.)

A showing of good cause would be required to allow any of the six retired players with previously asserted claims against Riddell to join Exhibit 1 despite their failure to comply with the Court's 2017 SFC Order. X1LAW provides no reason, let alone a good reason, to explain why these six players—unlike the majority of their co-plaintiffs—failed to comply.

II. CONCLUSION

For the above reasons, I find that Exhibit 1, as attached to this Order and as previously filed (Case No. 19-md-2323, ECF No. 21; Case No. 12-md-2323, ECF No. 11658), reflects the final list of Plaintiffs with valid claims against the Riddell Defendants.

AND NOW, this 24th day of May, 2022, it is ORDERED that the attached Exhibit 1 sets forth the final list of Plaintiffs with valid claims against the Riddell Defendants.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any claims by Plaintiffs not listed on Exhibit 1 are procedurally deficient and/or abandoned and are therefore DISMISSED with PREJUDICE.
